DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Surfaced in formstone, this two bay, three story, flat roofed house in midblock still retains a handsome cornice.

There are two six-panel doors to the left (the one to the far right at ground level and probably to a sally port; the entrance door up three marble stairs) under a shared peaked door surround with three flat pilasters. To the left is a cellar window. The other windows are all six-over-six double hung. The cornice has two very deep end brackets with smaller ones in between.
